

Would You Ever, Have You Ever, Did You Know ???

Have you ever:

Licked the spoon and put it back in the bowl?
Gone more than a month without shaving your legs?
Re-gifted something someone gave to you?
Hidden when someone rang the doorbell?
Played hooky from work by calling in sick when you really weren't sick?
Wrapped a gift and hid it and then completely forgot where you hid it?
Looked for something only to realize you were holding it in your hand or had it on your head (like reading glasses)?
Forgotten to set the clocks forward or back and then showed up early or late?
Binged watched a TV show for hours on end?
Completely forgotten a family member's birthday?
Had all your Christmas shopping done by the end of November?
Bought something and worn it and taken it back/return?
Gone to bed with your make-up on?
Got pulled over and not told your spouse about it?
Missed a flight because your over slept?

Would you ever:

Pack a suitcase and head out on a trip without really knowing where you were going?
Sing karaoke in front of a room of strangers?
Take pole dancing lessons?
Run a marathon?
Color your hair an entirely different color?
Go sky-diving?
Go a week without the internet?
Travel to another state to see a concert?
Start music lessons (if you had all the time you needed to practice)?
Paint your front door a bright color?
Go away for an over night or weekend all by yourself?

Did you know:

MK was a real woman and started our company in her mid 40's?
MK is a debt free, privately owned company?
Inventory is an option, but recommended—as a privilege to be able to have product on hand for your customers and there is a 90% buy back guarantee if you should choose to close your doors?
Mary Kay Ash started her company on September, Friday the 13th, 1963?
The Mary Kay Ash Foundation is a charitable foundation that raises money for finding cures for cancers that affect women, fight against human trafficking & against domestic violence and raised 4.3 million dollars in 2016?
An estimated 85% of MK consultants work their business 3-5 hours a week and earn an extra $300-$500 a month?
There are more women in MK making over $100,000 a year than any other corporation in America?
MK dazzles us with diamonds AND free cars AND free trips around the world AND quarterly prizes as incentives?
That you can earn a free car that is NOT pink—such as the silver ice Chevy cruze, magnetic gray Ford fusion and charcoal Chevy equinox?
You can take cash instead of a car?
That a woman's self esteem and confidence can be enhanced because as she builds confidence in something outside of her comfort zone—she feels really good about who she is?
There are amazing tax deductions you can get from having a home based business?
That being your own boss in MK allows you the opportunity to step away from your former full time career and replace or exceed that income if you choose to?